Ayer's Hair Vigor,

which is at once agreeable, effectual preserving the mir. It soon restores faded or gray hair to its original gloss and freshness of youth. Thin natt and Louisville. hair is thickened, fulling hair checked, Puttman Steeping and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follieles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as romain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of linir is produced. Instead of foaling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently provent baldness. The resuration of vitality it gives to the realp arrests and prevents the forma-tion of dandrall, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. Free from these deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injuries to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not have it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING nothing else can be found so desirable, Contaming neither oil mr dye, it does not soil white cambrie, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre, and a grateful perfume.

ETERNAL JUSTICE.

Or bigot, plotting crime, Who, for the advancement of his race, Is wiser than his time.

For him the hemlock shall distill;

For him the gibbet shall be built,

For him the gibbet shall be built,

For him the stake propared.

Him shall the scorn and wrath of men : Pursue with deadly alm;

And malice, envy, spite, and lies,

Shall desecrate his name.

But truth shall conquer at the last,

For round and round we run;

And ever the right comes uppermost,

And ever is justice done.

And ever is justice done.

Pace through thy well, old Socrates,
Cheerly, to and fre;
Trust to the impulse of thy soul,
And let the poison flow.
They may shatter to earth the lamp of clay,
That holds a light divine;
But they cannot quench the fire of the't
By any such deadly wine.
They cannot blot thy spoken words
From the memory of man,
By all the poison ever was brewed
Since time its course began.
To-day abhorred, to-morrow adored:
So round and round we run;
And ever the truth comes uppermost,
And ever is justice done. And ever is justice done.

Plod in thy grave, gray anchorite;
Be wiser than thy poers;
Augment the range of human power,
And trust to coming years.
They may call thee wizard, and monk accursed,
And load thee with dispraise;
Thou wort born five hundred years too

Thou wort born five hundred years too
soon
For the comfort of thy days;
But not too soon for human kind;
Time hath reward in store;
And the demons of our sires become
The saints that we adore.
The blind can see, the slave is lord;
For round and round we run;
And over the wrong is proved to be

Wrong, And ever is justice done.

Keep, Galliloo, to thy thought,
And nerve thy soul to bear;
They may gloat o'er the senseless words
they wrung
From the pangs of thy despair;
They may rest their eyes, but they cannot bide
The san's meridian glow;
The heel of a priest may tread thee down,
And a tyrant work thee wee.
But never a truth has been destroyed:

And a tyrint work inde wee.
But never a truth has been destroyed;
They may curso it, and call it a crime,
Pervert and betray, or slander and slay,
Its toochers for a time.
But the sanshine aye shall light the sky,
As round and round we run;
And the truth shall ever come, were And the truth shall ever come upper

And justice shall be done. And live there now such men as these, With thoughts like the great of old? Many have died in their nursery, And left their thought untold.

And many live, and are ranked as mad, And bear the cold world's ban, For sending their bright, far-secting soul Three centuries in the van.
They toil in penury and grief,
Unknown, if not muligned—
Forlorn, forlorn, bearing the scorn
Of the meanest of mankind.

But yet the world goes round and round And the genial sensons run; And ever the truth comes uppermost, And over is justice done.

DECATUR, ILLINOIS: Saturday Evening, July 31.

An effort is being made among the friends of the late Governor Yates, at growing fine, and we will make about his old home, to raise a sufficient sum 50 bushels per acre, from the early of money to procure a steel engraving planting. The late planting is doing More of the Great Failure of the deceased for insertion in the well, but some of it will not have time forthcoming volume of the "Eminont to mature. We have more acreage in Men of Illinois." For such a purpose, than was ever known in this country there ought to be no difficulty in raising any reasonable sum.

THE country is being flooded with circulars, sent out by Charles W. Thompson, announcing the purpose of some mythical organization of voteran soldiers and sailors, of which Mr. Thompson is the secretary (probably also president, treasurer, board of directors, and sole member), to bring Brown counties about the same; the Hon. Nathaniel P. Banks, of Massachusetts, before the people as an independont candidate for President, with Hon. L. Q. C. Lamar, of Mississippi, as Vice President. The "independents," of whom we hear so much in these days, will be expected to rush anxiously to the support of this ticket.

THE Supreme Court of the United States has just rendered an important decision to the offeet that a purchasor of cotton from the Confederate States, who know that the money he paid for it went to sustain the rebellion, cannot. in the Court of Claims, recover the proceeds when it has been captured and sold under the captured and abandoned property act. This, on the g-d d-n the grasshoppers, no man ground that the government of the Confederacy had no existence except as an organized treason, its purpose, while it lasted, being to everthrow the lawful government; and that its statutes, its decrees, and its authority gave validity to no act in its service or in aid of its but we expect to strike oil soon, whom

SHOULL OF MATCH AT LINCOLN.

On Thursday afternoon some of the best marksmon of Danville, Dunnivan, Bloomington, Elkhart, Clinton, Lincoln, Decatur and other towns and elties met at Lincoln to shoot the "great match" which had been extensively advertised for weeks past. It was expected to have some horse racing on the same day, but owing to the heavy condition of the track the racing was postponed and with I the "great match." The marksmon who had come so far to have a match were determined to have some sort of a contest for the championship before they left Lincoln. Accordingly a match of less importance was at once arranged for, and the best marksmen present took part in it. Among the contestants for the prizes-$110 and $30-which were offered, were George Hunter, of Elkhart, Ill., Capt. A. H. Bogarders' companlon; Wm. Knapp, of Lincoln; Mr. Longnecker, of Atlanta; Messrs, Bentley, Pittman and Holden, of Bloomington, and Dr. Waddams, of this elty. THE MATCH TOOK PLACE at the Lincoln fair grounds, commencing at about 3 o'clock p. m., and continuing until 7. Dr. Waddams, Decatur's representative, came off victorious, killing 30 birds out of 40. Mr. Kuapp, of Lincoln, killed 37, and several ether has accepted the position of foreman of good scores were made, but none to equal Waddams'. The Doctor received the news department of the Tribung offirst and second prizes, and came off more than victor over his numerous competitors. During this preliminary contest some

CHICAGO AND ST. PAUL via Madison, Baraboo and Eiroy, and is the ONLY route running Pullman Palace Sars between Chicago and St. Paul.

This is the Shortest, Quickest and Best Route to St. Paul and Minneapolis.

The track is of the best steel rail, and all the appointments are first-class. The trains are made up of elegant Pullman Palace Drawing Room and Steeping Coaches, buttle expressly for this time, luxurious, well-lighted and well ventilated Day Coaches, and pleasant ioninging and amoking cars. The clars are all equipped with the celebrated Milier Safety Platform, and patent Buffers and Couplings, Westinghouse Safety Air Brakes, and every other appliance that has been devised for the safety of passenger trains. All trains are run by telegraph. In a word this GREAT LINE has the best and smoothest track, and the most elegant and comfortable equipment of any road in the West, and has no competitor in the country. It is eminently the favorite route to the north, and north-west.

All railroad ticket agents can give you information about this line and the time of its trains.
